

TOWN OF LADYSMITH

BYLAW NO. 2244

A Bylaw to amend "Council Procedure Bylaw 2009, No. 1666"

The Council of the Town of Ladysmith in open meeting assembled enacts as follows:

1. Amend Section 7, "Special and 'In Camera' Meetings of Council" by inserting the following items:
 - 7.4 Following a Closed Session Meeting, Council shall, as soon as practicable, publicly report any resolution, decision or direction considered in Closed Session where the reason for withholding the information no longer applies, or where disclosure would not be harmful to the interests protected by section 90 of the Community Charter.
 - 7.5 At least annually, the Corporate Officer shall provide Council with a list of previously unreleased Closed Session resolutions, decisions and directions for Council's consideration as to whether continued confidentiality is necessary.
 - 7.6 Notwithstanding sections 7.4 and 7.5, any sanction imposed on a Member of Council shall be reported publicly following the Closed Session Meeting at which the sanction is imposed, including the nature of the sanction, except to the extent necessary to protect personal information pursuant to applicable legislation.
2. Amend Section 15 by inserting the following item:
 - 15.12 No motion that is substantially the same as a motion previously defeated by Council may be reintroduced within six months of its defeat unless authorized by a two-thirds vote of Council.
