DELEGATION

Mark Skelton

Update on Community Living BC Community Council

Mark Skelton made a presentation to Council about the Central Island BC Community Living Council and its mandate to create awareness and understanding regarding people of diverse abilities. He outlined the Community Council's objectives to promote inclusive employment and education, to co-host information and to partner to educate, thereby developing communities where people with developmental disabilities have more choices. Mr. Skelton also mentioned that the Central Island Community Council is looking for more members from Ladysmith.

Council thanked Mr. Skelton for his presentation and noted that the Town would use social media to promote membership for the Central Island Community Council.

PROCLAMATION

A Day for Our Common Future

Mayor Stone proclaimed December 11, 2017 as "A Day for Our Common Future" in the Town of Ladysmith, in recognition of the role residents, businesses, governments and communities play in furthering global goals for sustainable development.

Mayor Stone expressed his condolences regarding the recent loss of Laurie Gourlay, the champion behind the proclamation and the issue of sustainability.
